Events of the Olympic Cycle

Taking the nature of these events into account, only the respective Regional Coordinator is sufficient to make the previous announcement and publication, with previous consultation with the General Coordinator.

In case one or more bowlers from another region also participate in the event, the Regional Coordinator will draw up – same as with other events – the proof of his participation and the respective reports, and forward them to the General Coordinator.

Article 6: Calendar of Events

The certified events for the Ranking will start as of January 2006, and must finish at the latest November 30th of the current year.

If a player comes from a country, which for extraordinary circumstances cannot register the results of her National Championship, can accrue ranking points in other Events, provided she received authorization from his own Federation or Association.

Bowlers who participated in more than three ranking events during the current year, in this case only the ranking points received in the National Event and two best results of the other ranking events will be considered.

Article 8: Punctuation

Punctuation of the Events which are valid for ranking.

For all Certified Events valid for ranking of the Zone (National Championship or special designated event, Official Championships of WTBA AZ, CONCECABOL, CONCABA, COBOISCA, South America Confederation - CSB, Events of the Olympic Cycle, and Invitational Tournaments) the winner of the first place will receive 200 points.

The winners of the following positions will receive the points according to the following table:

- a. The first place will be awarded with 200 points; the following players on the final result report will receive in descending format of 2 points according to their position.
- b. In case we have more than 100 participants, the players finishing on a lower position than 100, will not receive any ranking point.
- c. In case we have less than 100 participants the points will be distributed dividing 200 by the number of participants, to get the descending format. If the result has a fraction of .50 or higher, then the descending format number will be rounded to the next higher number. Otherwise the fraction will be neglected... Example 1: if we have 48 subscribers we divide 200 by 48 = 4.17. In this case the descending format number is 4. The player who finished on the first place will get 200 points, the second place 196, the third place 192 etc....

 Example 2: if we have 80 subscribers we divide 200 by 80 = 2.5 in this case the descending format number is 3. The player who finished on the first place will get 200 points, the second place 197, the third place 194 etc...

- d. In case the Invitational Tournament comprises of only one final list of both male and female together, we will compute the corresponding ranking points according to their position, for each category on a separate list. Example: In an event with 80 participants of which 30 are female and 50 are male, the base of punctuation for female participants will be 30 and for male participants 50, as the divider to compute the descending number for the ranking points respectively.

In Events whereby players of different Regions are participating, The Regional Coordinator will have to send a copy of the results to the other Coordinators involved and the General Coordinator, including the ranking points gained.

The bowlers who participate in more than 3 ranking events, only the three events with best ranking points will be computed. The rule stated in article 7 will be strictly applied.
